MEMORANDUM

TO : JJ 2 & DM 190 ✓

FROM : AG 25 ✓

SUBJECT: The Mufti's Escape

Uthman, Hajj Amin

1. The daily press tumbles over itself with theories of the Mufti's whereabouts. British Security Middle-East, which is primarily concerned, has only one theory which is based on anything.

2. A Syrian member of the diplomatic family in Paris, one Mr. ~~DAWALIBI~~, booked passage for Egypt by air at about the time of the Mufti's disappearance, and an individual using that name made the trip. On arriving in Cairo, the individual declared that he would stay at the Eden Hotel, but a check at the hotel reveals no such person, while the Syrian Legation here has not seen him. It is further reported from Paris that ~~DAWALIBI~~ has been seen there subsequent to his supposed departure.

3. If the Mufti came to Cairo in the guise of ~~DAWALIBI~~, his subsequent movements are unknown, whether to proceed to Damascus, which is unlikely, or to Saudi Arabia, which is possible, or to remain here as the guest of the King on one of his estates.

4. Brigadier ROBERTS, the head of SIME, maintains the conviction that the Mufti is still in France, if he has not in fact been kidnapped by the Jews.

5. The Troopship Devonshire was searched from stem to stern by a naval boarding party directed by Lt. Col. OLLFIELD and Capt. BRODIE of SIME on her arrival at Port-Said recently. She is in the so-called REDLOCK run between Port-Said and Marseilles.
